About me

I am quite a flexible person with an easy going demeanour. I keep an open mindset so as to adjust myself in any situation. I find my strength in multitasking. Also I keep patience in any work I do or any crisis if I happen to face. I have an artistic mind which helps me find innovative ideas to put into any task. However one weakness I have noticed in myself is that at times I lose the track of time when I engage myself in any particular work till it is done. But I am always committed to and persistent at any work I am assigned to.
