Ref. No.: RGIPT/JAIS/End Sem-Odd/2020-21/02

01st December, 2020

NOTIFICATION

The is to bring to the notice of all concerned that;

1. The end-semester examinations for the courses offered in Odd Semester, 2020-21 academic year shall be conducted in the class room following the conventional pattern for all the UG and PG programmes after the return of students to campus.
2. Considering the resurgence in number of COVID cases in the region, the situation is not conducive to allow the students to return to the campus currently. Therefore, the end semester examination of all B. Tech., MBA 1st year, all Diploma, and M. Tech. 1st year EIB centre is deferred till further notice.
3. The above students will be asked to return to the campus in a phase-wise manner from March, 2021 onwards, once the Institute is convinced that the safety and security of students is fully assured and the Institute & centres at Sivasagar and Bengaluru make all necessary arrangements to efficiently handle the pandemic related contingencies. The students will be notified in advance about their further return to campus.
4. The students in final semester of B. Tech., and Diploma programmes shall return to the respective campuses in the first phase to complete the project work, remaining laboratory courses and theory courses so that they receive the degree in time.
5. Meanwhile, the registration process for Even Semester, 2020-21 academic year will be completed and subsequently the lectures will commence via online mode soon for the UG and PG programmes after completion of online lectures of the Odd semester, 2020-21 academic year to ensure proper utilization of time. The date of registration for each batch & corresponding programme and class timetable will be communicated to the students in due course.
6. The Coordinators of AEI, Sivasgar and EI, Bengaluru shall make necessary arrangements related to safe living and commutation of students as described in Point No. 3.
