NOTIFICATION

Provision of courses to be offered during Summer break (May-July) to clear any prevailing backlog exists at RGIPT under the following conditions;

- The course offerings are limited to the courses offered to the 7th and 8th Semester students only
- A maximum of three courses per student will be allowed during summer
- The course/s for a particular student will be considered to be offered if on passing the specified courses, the student becomes eligible to receive the degree. However, if a course is already offered during the summer then a student may register for the same.

This is for all concerned and issued following the Undergraduate Ordinance of the Institution.
