OFFICE NOTE

To,

The Chairman, Senate, RGIPT

Sub.: Approval for courses offered to PhD students in various departments

Dear Sir,

We seek your kind approval to allow the following courses towards calculation of credits for the PhD students. The following courses are currently (even semester, 2019-20 academic year) offered in various departments to PhD students. These courses have not been approved by the Senate of the Institution. However, the individual DPGC recently evaluated the suitability of these courses for the PhD students and observed that the syllabus of the enlisted courses is similar to that of the courses already offered to PhD students in various IITs and IISERs. The minutes of DPGC meetings is enclosed for reference.

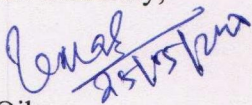

List of Courses

Name of the Course	Code
Department of Chemical Engineering & Engineering Sciences
Electrochemical Processes & Energy Systems	CH551.N
Precision Remote Sensing	PE521.N
Machine Learning	CH541.N
Electric Vehicle	CH501.N
Department of Sciences & Humanities
Numerical Solution of Partial Differential Equations	MA521.N
Technical writing & Documentation Skills	PC521.N
Physics & Chemistry of Biomolecules	CH531.N

Advanced Nanomaterial for Energy Storage & Conversion	CH512.N
Finite Element Methods	MA531.N
Applied Matrix Theory	MA532.N
Numerical Analysis	MA541.N
Partial Differential Equations	MA522.N
Industrial Sociology	SC511.N
Solar Energy : Fundamental & Applications	RE511.N
Department of Petroleum Engineering & Geosciences
Seismic Geomechanics	GS531.N
Seismic Data Processing	GS532.N
Department of Management Studies
Research Methodology	MS531.N
Course of Independent Studies	MS511.N

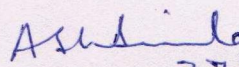

Therefore, you are requested to approve the above courses towards the calculation of the credits for PhD students for the current semester only, as a special case. Such courses will be abolished after the completion of semester and the above provision will not be considered as a precedence while assigning the courses to PG students in subsequent semesters.

Yours Sincerely,

U. Ojha

Dean (AA)

Submitted to the Chairman, Senate for kind approval
